THEATRICAL OFFERINGS

PATRONS PLEASED WITH NEW OFFERING AT THE POPULAR

Mirth, Comedy and Drama
Make Up One of Best Bills
Seen at This Playhouse

One of the biggest bills yet offered at the Popular theater is being presented this week. It is full of mirth and melody, comedy and drama and has been pleasing the crowds who have been attending since Wednesday night. Tonight will mark the close of the present bill with indications that it will be as popular as it was on the opening night. There was a big crowd in attendance last night and through the two hours or more of high-class moving picture features and an excellent song program by Shanley's Cabaret de Luxe the audience was in constant good humor.

"The Making of Bobby Burnit" is the film feature, though Mary Pickford, in "Such a Little Queen," continues to be as big a favorite as when she made her first bow in this pleasing photo-play.

Edward Aboles and Miss Bessie Farnside are seen to advantage in "The Making of Bobby Burnit." It is a pretty romance, something along the lines of "Brewster's Millions," and well worth witnessing.

Bobby, without business experience, inherits a fortune under his father's will, the document stipulating that he must invest the money. His sweet-heart comes to his aid, advising him to take over the control of his father's stores. It is from this point that the young man's troubles begin. He falls into the hands of dishonest schemers and is well along the road to ruin and bankruptcy when Agnes Elliston, his sweetheart, overhears the plotting of the schemers, warns Bobby, the day is saved, the young man's fortune recovered and he marries the girl who saved him. There are a number of excellent scenes and many thrilling situations in this picture.

The new Pathe Weekly has a number of scenes of world-wide news interest this week. This is one of the best features in the Popular picture program.

Shanley's Cabaret de Luxe is putting on a complete change in song program. There are 15 numbers on the bill this week.

"On the Beach at Waikiki," sung by Miss Myers with what may really be termed a refined hula accompaniment, is one of the big hits of the song program. Miss Myers was encored four times in this number last night. "Everyone in Town Loves My Girl," by Miss Nellie Clifford, is also a good number. "Trixie Leach in 'The Good Ship Mary Ann,' was well received. "Highland Mary" was "another" in which this clever singer scored. This is a typical Scotch song, with a Scotch dance, and Miss Leach did well with both.

"The Patchwork Girl of Oz," a whimsical extravaganza, one of the most elaborately staged moving picture productions ever shown here, will be the feature film of the new bill beginning tomorrow afternoon. Messrs. Bredhoff and Blair guarantee their patrons that this picture will be something entirely different and in many ways far more interesting and amusing than anything they have yet seen at the Popular or in Honolulu.

The other picture features for the bill are now being prepared. Rehearsals for the new cabaret song program have been under way since Wednesday and an entire change is promised.

CENSORS AND PHYSICIANS INVITED TO PASS ON DRAMA 'THE ESCAPE'

National Board and Mainland Press Loud in Praise of Big Educational Photo-Play

An invitation has been issued to the members of the board of censors of theaters and motion pictures to attend the performance at Ye Liberty theater tonight and witness for themselves the faithful screening of that great drama of real life, "The Escape." Provided the board decides that the picture should not be shown locally, that it does not carry the moral lesson claimed for it, or that it is of what might be termed an immoral nature the management is willing to abide by its decision. However, from the mainland criticism, all of which is favorable to the drama, and from the fact that the national board of censors hailed "The Escape" as the "greatest motion picture ever screened," the management feels that the local board must take similar action.

Ranging from a pictorial representation of the amoeba, the simplest form of life, through vivid drama and thrilling struggle, this great picture teaches a lesson and points a moral that will not soon be forgotten. A number of Honolulu's leading physicians and teachers have attended a performance of "The Escape" and with few exceptions are loud in their praise of the great work that has been undertaken through the medium of the motion picture screen. Any physician who has not already seen "The Escape" is invited to do so at once and form for himself an opinion as to its educational possibilities along lines that are, to put it mildly, considerably advanced.

ALPHIN SPECIAL PROGRAM MEETS GENERAL FAVOR

The Alphin Musical Comedy Company, at the Bijou last night, departed from their usual line of musical comedy and gave a farce comedy, with music. The innovation was more than successful and was strongly welcomed by the large audience, and the funny situations kept them in laughter from the curtain rise to the fall and there was not a dull moment in the whole production. Jules Mendel, as the servant, and Rose Mendel, as his wife, supplied most of the comedy and did it well. George Ford, as the nephew, Grover Schupp, the uncle; Bessie Hill, in love with the nephew, and the rest of the fun-making and incidentally contributed several clever musical numbers. Among the most prominent of these were "Liberty" (written by Mr. Alphin), Miss Hill and Baby Dolls; "Chickens on Parade," George H. Ford and Baby Dolls; "Daddy," Miss Davis; "Let Them Alone, They're Married," Bessie Hill and George Ford, and a musical number by Jules Mendel, assisted by one of the members of the orchestra.

The vaudeville items were again a big feature and it can safely be said that they are three of the best acts ever seen here in a combination. These acts are here for a short time only, and everyone who has not already seen them should take advantage of the short season here. Horace Wright and Rene Dietrich are two of the daintiest and best singers who have graced the Bijou stage and certainly deserve all the applause they get. On Saturday they will give a complete change of songs, and Mr. Wright will feature some of his favorite grand opera selections.

PEARL HARBOR TRIP

For those who wish to see the Pearl Harbor naval station, the Sunday trip conducted by the outdoor promotion committee will be one of great interest, permission having been obtained from Rear Admiral Moore to inspect the buildings, drydock and other interesting features. The party will leave on the 9:15 a. m. train from the Oahu railway station, getting off at

VAUDEVILLE ACTS ON PHOENIX PROGRAM

One of the features of the minstrel and vaudeville show to be given by the Phoenix Lodge tomorrow night, will be the novelty stunt of Miss Hollis Hughes, the 7-year-old daughter of Bob Hughes, director of the Alphin company. Miss Hollis has traveled with her parents for the greater part of her seven years, but appears for the first time as a professional tomorrow night.

Among other stunts will be a guitar playing act by Mike Moss and "Sonny" Gay, and a number by R. F. Burns on a sither. Eddie Kipling is to dance, as will the Alphin sisters. Four French dances have a feature planned, the nature of which is still a secret, and a beauty chorus will assist in several of the individual acts.

Pierre Baron and the Searle Brothers will complete the program with fancy wrestling, after which there will be a dance. The Royal Kawaihau Quartet will furnish the music.

Puuloa station, which is only a short distance from the naval grounds. For those desiring a more strenuous trip, a hike up Nuuanu valley and the Lanikuli trail has been arranged. The party leaving the Promotion Committee rooms at 7:30 Sunday morning. Saturday afternoon's hike will be up Pacific Heights to Pauoa resthouse and will leave the Promotion rooms at 1:30 p. m.

Resumption of operations on full time was ordered at the Calumet & Hecla Company at Calumet, Mich., and all its operating subsidiaries.
